

COVID-19: UK TIMELINE

MARCH 2020 - APRIL 2021

PICTURES: The vaccination drive for all eligible Brighton residents started in mid January at the Brighton Racecourse.
 GRAPH BELOW: Confirmed Covid cases in Brighton and Hove, March 2020-March 2021 (7-day average).
 Total COVID-19 cases in Brighton and Hove up to 31st March 2021: 14,386.

COVID-19 IN THE UK

MARCH	APRIL	MAY	JUNE	JULY	AUGUST	SEPTEMBER	OCTOBER	NOVEMBER	DECEMBER	JANUARY	FEBRUARY	MARCH	APRIL
From early March: Arch works alongside colleagues at Public Health, the City Council, the CCG, and all homeless services in Brighton & Hove to develop appropriate to develop appropriate accommodation for 300-400 homeless people who are either living on the streets or in accommodation with shared facilities which does not allow them to self isolate 23rd March onwards: Arch surgery moves all appointments to telephone where possible; implements a monitoring system to ensure all patients self-isolating with Covid-19 symptoms receive daily contact and support from a member of Arch or Justlife. 27th March: Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government (MHCLG) instructs all local authorities to move rough sleepers off the streets within a few days. Arch works with partners across the city to secure accommodation within the timeframe. The city council secured several facilities to be used for this purpose.	April: Arch designs a system of TRIAGE - COHORT - PROTECT - CARE <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Clinical team TRIAGE for symptoms of Covid-19 Patients with no symptoms are allocated to PROTECT accommodation, grouped into higher and lower risk groups Patients with possible symptoms are allocated to CARE accommodation, to self isolate and recover Arch, in partnership with St Mungo's, offers daily visits and support. All people off the streets. April: Arch's clinical team deployed offsite in the PROTECT & CARE accommodation hotels, Arch surgery largely staffed by locums.	May: Arch employs an Infection Control Nurse on behalf of PH.	Early June: Arch clinical team reduce intensity of accommodation visits and return to work at the surgery. There is a high level of patient need which the team are required to meet. Early June: Arch surgery introduces adaptations to work within the track and trace system. 15th June onwards: surgery changes working practices to adapt to easing of restrictions.	Team continue to provide daily visits to Care & Protect sites as well as daily care from the surgery	August: Arch film released, showcasing work in the city throughout Covid-19.	Team continue to provide daily visits to Care & Protect sites as well as daily care from the surgery	October: Arch appoints dedicated Covid nurse to provide tailored support to patients.	Covid Outreach nurse provides testing, triage and care support to all accommodation and service providers.	Covid Outreach nurse provides testing, triage and care support to all accommodation and service providers.	15th January: The NHS Covid-19 vaccination rollout arrives in Brighton and Hove, with the Brighton Racecourse opening as a vaccination centre. Arch is heavily involved in preparations for, and administration of the vaccinations at this site.	1st February: As part of the Covid Recovery plan Arch opens 5 step-down beds at St. Patricks Hostel in partnership with YMCADLG. This is accommodation for people who are leaving hospital but have nowhere to go. 9th February: Arch launches a mobile Covid-19 vaccination service, in partnership with Justlife, Sussex Community NHS FT and St John Ambulance. The service is in operation 3 days a week around key sites in the city.	26th March: Arch completes Stage One of its mobile vaccination partnership having administered over 800 first doses.	19th April: Arch begin Stage two of mobile vaccine partnership offering second doses.

ARCH HEALTHCARE'S RESPONSE TO COVID-19

PICTURES: Arch has remained open for patients, providing day-to-day services as well as a vaccine outreach.

